MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: 22 September Meeting at the PFIAB

1. On 22 September, two separate meetings were held at the PFIAB. The first meeting discussed the DDI and DDO efforts connected with the scope and quality of intelligence collection and analysis [redacted] Attending were representatives from the DDO (Messrs. [redacted] and from the DDI (Messrs. [redacted] Constantine Menges, and [redacted]. The PFIAB representation was Messrs. Paul Seabury, Lawrence Sternfield, Roy Godson, and Fred Demech. In the attached memorandum written by [redacted] an accurate summary of the first portion of the meeting is recounted. [redacted] was generous in his praise of the DO concerning [redacted] during the meeting. The PFIAB expressed some surprise that I would not speak of DDO matters related [redacted] in Mr. Menges' presence. I told the PFIAB that Mr. Menges, while greatly respected by us, must seek DO information from the DDO himself. Mr. Menges left the room at the PFIAB's request.
